Below are sentences using either an infinitive, a participle, or a gerund. Read each sentence carefully. Write which verbal form appears in the sentence in the blank.

1. Running is my father’s favorite sport.

_______________________________________________________________________________

2. It’s important for him to run every day.

_______________________________________________________________________________

3. He has special running shoes.

_______________________________________________________________________________

4. He likes running in the rain

_______________________________________________________________________________

5. My mother likes to hike.

_______________________________________________________________________________

6. Hiking is good for building strength.

_______________________________________________________________________________

7. There are many hiking trails near us.

_______________________________________________________________________________

8. She once had a frightening hike near a bear.

_______________________________________________________________________________
Below are sentences using either an infinitive, a participle, or a gerund. Read each sentence carefully. Write which verbal form appears in the sentence in the blank.

1. Running is my father’s favorite sport.
   _______________________________________________________________________________
   gerund

2. It’s important for him to run every day.
   _______________________________________________________________________________
   infinitive

3. He has special running shoes.
   _______________________________________________________________________________
   participle

4. He likes running in the rain
   _______________________________________________________________________________
   gerund

5. My mother likes to hike.
   _______________________________________________________________________________
   infinitive

6. Hiking is good for building strength.
   _______________________________________________________________________________
   gerund

7. There are many hiking trails near us.
   _______________________________________________________________________________
   participle

8. She once had a frightening hike near a bear.
   _______________________________________________________________________________
   participle